VIETNAM HILL TRIBE TREK and BEAR SANCTUARY VISIT

12-21 October 2013

Join us on this fundraising adventure in Vietnam to help end bear farming and improve the welfare of animals in Asia

The Challenge

Join us for this challenging and rewarding trek to help China and Vietnam's suffering bears, cats and dogs. Meet local people in their homes on a stunning hill tribe trek in the Mai Chau region of northern Vietnam; enjoy the hustle and bustle of the capital city, Hanoi and learn first-hand about the plight of Vietnam's endangered bears with an exclusive visit to our bear rescue centre outside Tam Dao national park and a guided tour by Animals Asia's founder, Jill Robinson MBE. There you will meet some of the 100 fortunate rescued bears who now enjoy a life free from pain and fear.

The Project

Your fundraising will support Animals Asia's work to improve the welfare of animals in China and Vietnam. We promote compassion and respect for all animals and work to bring about long-term change. Our work focuses on three major programmes:

End Bear Bile Farming – working to end the barbaric bear bile trade, which sees more than 14,000 bears kept in cages on farms throughout China and Vietnam.

Cat and Dog Welfare - working to end the trade in dogs and cats for food, and to end inhumane dog and cat population management.

Zoos and Safari Parks – working to end abusive animal practices in zoos and safari parks.

The Price

There is a £300 non-refundable registration fee and you will be asked to raise a minimum of £2,900 in sponsorship which will include flights, the trek and the visit to the bear sanctuary as well as a significant donation to Animals Asia's vital work. If you book before January 6 you will receive a special discount!
