

ANIMALS ASIA PRESENTS A WONDERFUL STARRY NIGHT FOR THE MOON BEARS

Thursday 19 June 2014 at Gilgamesh Restaurant, Camden, London NW1 8AH (doors open 7pm).

Please join us at Gilgamesh, the critically acclaimed Pan-Asian restaurant in the heart of Camden Town's Stables Market for a unique night with many stars of stage and screen to raise funds and awareness for the suffering moon bears in Asia.

Founder and CEO of Animals Asia Jill Robinson MBE will be giving a presentation on our work including exciting and important new developments that we want you to be among the first to know about.

Supporter Lesley Nicol, Downton Abbey's redoubtable Mrs Patmore and other members of the cast (subject to availability) will be taking to the stage to perform some light entertainment!

Animals Asia UK ambassador and actor Peter Egan will also conduct an auction, including celebratory items from Manchester United, a special painting by Pam Ayres MBE and a highly collectable bear sculpture.

Book your tickets today (places are limited) on 01579 347148.

Tickets £80 (including a welcome drink and 1/2 bottle of wine) for a two-course vegetarian dinner (with vegan option) by award winning chef Ian Pongelley. Ian, well known for his appearances on BBC television's MasterChef and previous joint venture with Gordon Ramsay, is sure to come up with a spectacular menu that will suit this starry night for the moon bears.
